CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold, or the dispute settled at the discretion of the Auctioneer. The vendor or vendors reserve to themselves the right to bid either personally or by their agent.

2.—No person to advance less than 1s. at each bidding under two pounds; above two pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so on in proportion, or as named by the Auctioneer, who reserves the right to refuse the bidding of any person.

3.—Each buyer to pay five shillings in the pound or such sum as the Auctioneer shall name, in part payment for each lot, such deposit to be applicable to any lots purchased, and to give in their name and address if the clerk requires it; in default of which all lots (previously purchased) will be immediately put up again and re-sold.

4.—The Auctioneer will not be answerable for the title to or description of any of the lots, but they are to be paid for and taken away with all faults and errors of every kind at the purchaser's expense, before 12 O'CLOCK ON MONDAY, DECEMBER 11. The deposit money in no case will be allowed to any purchaser until the whole of the lots bought by him or her are paid for.

5.—The Auctioneer's selling book as corrected and initialled prior to be held as the correct catalogue of Sale. Corrections (if any) will be notified at the time of sale.

6.—All lots not cleared the day after the sale will remain at the sole risk of the purchaser, and any damage or deficiencies that there may be then, the purchaser must abide by.

7.—Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions the deposit-money shall be forfeited, the Auctioneer to be entitled to re-sell such lot or lots by public or private sale, without notice to the purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) occasioned by such re-sale, together with all charges attending the same to be made good by the defaulter or defaulters, at this sale. This Condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers, vendor, or vendors to enforce the contract made at this sale, if they think fit, and the entry of the clerk in the sale books verified by the Auctioneers, shall be deemed full and sufficient evidence of such contract, and be binding alike upon vendor and purchaser.

8.—All lots not taken away on MONDAY, DECEMBER 11 whether paid for or not, will be chargeable to Porterage and Wareroom, at 6d. per lot per day on small lots, rising to 5s. per day on Safes, Pianos, etc., which will be strictly enforced in all cases. Motor Cars charged 5s. per day.

NOTE.—These Conditions and notices also apply to Vendors with respect to goods unsold.

All Sale Accounts must be paid at the office in the Auction Room.

The attention of the Public is directed to the written Notice posted in the Sale Rooms, respecting Smoking, &c.

No Lots delivered during the Sale. NO CHEQUES TAKEN.

NOTICE TO VENDORS.—Sale Accounts will not be settled until the Lots are paid for.

No Lots delivered after Two o'clock on Saturdays.
